following Concessions on his behalf as a Special Case:-

(1) Grant of leave on private affairs under clause (ii) of art-165A r/w of Fundamental Rule in Contn under clause (i) of art-165A the whole period extending to 1yr 2 months & 20 days. & also the Privilege leave.

Art 226 authorizes the Grant of leave on private affairs by itself - Confer also Say in his docket no 1768 a/c 391 of 4.9.03 to the Ex. Comm: that Combined leave under art-165A Cannot be granted to Officers of more than 55 yrs of age ~~(B.P.)~~

Office note contd

In reply to G.O. no 573-F / Ex.F. 5-97 dy 20/2/04, sanctioning an addition of one year to Mr S. Venkatarangiengar's service in the 3rd grade of Extra Asst Commrs, the Excise Commr forwards with his letter no 68/G/273, dy 27/2/04, Mr S. Venkatarangiengar's application for pension with certain observations regarding the granting of combined leave (viz leave on private affairs with privilege leave). He also requests that, if the combined leave cannot be granted, the period of 2 months and 21 days may be added to the period of one year's service already sanctioned under the authority of the Govt of India Resolution no 2087 dy 10/8/1876.

Without entering into the first part of the question, viz the granting of combined leave, the question may be settled as suggested by the Excise Comm. in the 2nd Para of his letter. Under the Govt of India Resolution Mr Venkataranjiengar is entitled to an extension of his service by 2 years.

It was already pointed out in the 5th Para of the office note that Mr Venkataranjiengar requires an addition of one year two months and 20 days in order to entitle him to a pension of half of his salary. Perhaps as the Excise Comm., in his letter no $\frac{3612}{157}$ of 30.10.03, stated that an addition of one year's service was enough, the Extra period for which sanction is now required might have been over looked.

Submitted for orders.

The Govt having already held that the Comptroller's view is correct, the only course open is to sanction the addition of two months & twenty one days to Mr Venkata Rangaya's service under the G. I. Resolution 10/8/78; as the intention of Govt in sanctioning one year's addition was to enable him to draw half a pension equal to half his pay.

Sir,

I have the honor to recommend that, in consideration of the meritorious services of my Sheristadar Venkat Rangiengar, the grant of one year in his service from 16 February 1884, owing to his suspension from office, when he was the Amildar of the Chitaldroog Taluk, as per Dewan's order No: 3310/132, dated 22nd August 1884, consequent upon a case of assault &c reported against him, after a departmental enquiry during the time of the then Chitaldroog Sub-Division Office

Dr Ramaiah Row, and which he appears to have explained to be malicious and unfounded in a memorial submitted to the Dewan in August 1885, may be condoned under article 275 of the Mysore Service Regulations.

2. Though I cannot testify to the character of the Shirastadar's services during the whole period of the 12 years subsequent to the above suspension, yet I gather from a perusal of Dr Venkat Rangiengar's services recorded in his Service Register by the several officers under whom he was employed, that his services during the period he was so employed, were as good and valuable as they have been under me for the past four years; and hence my recommendation on his behalf for condonation of the break of one year in his service.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that the late Mr. Ricketts, my predecessor in office, in his letter No. 3403 dated 24th February 1896, recommended to Government that in consideration of the meritorious and valuable services of Mr. S. Venkata Rangiengar, Assistant to the Excise Commissioner, the break of one year in his service from 16th February 1884 to 16th February 1885, owing to his suspension from office, when he was the Amildar of the Chitaldroog taluk, be condoned. In reply, the Government ordered that the subject in question might be submitted for their consideration and orders when Mr. Venkata Rangiengar actually retired from service. Vide docket No. 10383 dated 10th March 1896, from the Secretary, General department, to the Excise Commissioner in Mysore.

2. Now that Mr. Venkata Rangiengar's retirement has been ordered in Government Proceedings No. 137-8 Ex. F. 597 dated 13th August 1903, I beg to support my predecessor's recommendation very strongly for the condonation of the above mentioned break in consideration of not only his meritorious and valuable services, but also of the fact that during the whole period of nearly forty years of his service, he has had up to date, only two months' privilege leave, excluding casual leave for a few days.

Excise Commissioner,

To.

H. V. Nanjundiah Esquire, M. A; M. L.

Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

Sir,

Adverting to your official memo No. 257/Ex. F. 5-97, dated the 14th ultimo, forwarding a copy of Government Notification No. 256/Ex. F. 5-97 of the same date, granting to Mr. S. Venkatrangaiyengar, Assistant Excise Commissioner, privilege of absence for three months — preparatory to his retirement — I have the

the honor to state that his successor Mr. Gopalaryengar has reported himself for duty today, and will begin to take charge of the Stores, &c, and relieve Mr. S. Venkatrangaryengar on the afternoon of the 31st instant.

2. As the privilege leave for three months granted to Mr. S. Venkatrangaryengar, will end on 31st January 1904, he will have put in, up to that date, a Service of only one year, nine months and 10 days from 22nd April 1902, on which date he was promoted to the rank of an Extra Assistant Commissioner, Third class, in Government Proceedings No. $\frac{435-6}{\text{Ex. F. 5. 97}}$ dated 22nd April 1902. Therefore an additional service of one year, two months and twenty days is wanted to entitle him to a pension pension equal to a moiety of his present Salary. In Considera-tion of his long, faithful and valuable services for nearly forty years, with only two months' privilege leave excluding a few days' casual leave, during whole period, I beg to recommend the following — concessions for him as a special case :—

'(1) The grant of leave on private affairs in Continuation of the privilege leave, under clause (ii) of article 165A of the Telegraph Service Regulations. The Comptroller in his docket No. 1768 a/c 391 dated 21st September 1903, (a copy of which is herewith herewith sent), says that the concession of combined privilege leave under this article, is not extended to the officers who have attained the age of 55 years. But article 165 does not say so; and Article 226 permits the grant of leave on private affairs to officers who have attained the age of fifty-five years.

(2) The grant of furlough for the remaining period, in continuation of the privilege leave, under clause (i) of Article 165 A of the Mysore Service Regulations.

3. I beg to submit herewith a copy of the Government of India

1878, in which it is stated "that in addition to service for pension not exceeding the period of employment on famine relief duty, may, hereafter, on the retirement, be reconsidered for any specially deserving officer, who did not receive any extra allowance when so employed, and whose salary when so employed, did not exceed Rs. 600/- per mensem".
It would appear that with reference to this Resolution, the late Chief Commissioner submitted to the Government of India a list of only some European Officers as deserving of concession - under it, being apparently under the impression that it did not apply

apply to native officers. It is a well known fact that the hardest work during the famine devolved upon Amildars. Mr. Venkatrangaiyengar was the Amildar of the Anekal and Devanhalli Taluks during the famine of the years 1876-77 and 1877-78. The accompanying copies of some of the official reports in his possession, show that he did good service during the famine referred to in the aforesaid Government of India Resolution. It will be seen that the Famine Commissioner in his Farewell Minute has included mr. Venkatrangaiyengar's name among those whom he has particularized as those who worked with zeal and industry. Under such circum-stances, I beg to recommend that in the event of furlough not being granted, an addition of one year to his service for pension may be kindly sanctioned, as under the aforesaid Resolution a special case, to be included in the last three years of his service for calculating "average Emoluments".

From

P. N Purnaiya Esquire, BA; Excise Commissioner

To

L. Ananthasami Rao Esquire BA, Officiating Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, General & Revenue Departments.

Sir,

In acknowledging the receipt of Government Proceedings no: $\frac{573-4}{\&\ 7\ 5-97}$, dated the 20th February 1904, sanctioning the addition of one year to ---- Mr. S. Venkatarangadyengar's service in the 3rd grade of Extra Assistant Commissioners, and stating that the Concession recommended of combined privilege leave with leave on private affairs and furlough cannot be granted for the reasons explained by the Comptroller, I have the honor to state that the total period wanted to entitle Mr. Venkatarangadyengar to a pension equal to a moiety of his salary as a 3rd grade Extra Assistant Commissioner, is one year, two months and twenty one days. When I addressed my letter no: $\frac{3612}{157}$, dated the 30th October 1903, to Government, I was certain that the leave on on private affairs would be granted as ar 226 of the Mysore Service Regulations permits it officers who have attained the age of fifty-five years. But as the grant of furlough which also I recommended as a special case, is not authorized by the said article, I recommended in para 3 of my letter that in the event of furlough not being granted, an addition of one year out of the two years' service rendered by him during the famine of the years 1876-77 + 1877-78, might be sanctioned for Calculating the "Average emoluments" (Rule 1 of article 330A), under the authority of the Government of India Resolution No: 2087, dated 10th August 1878.

The latter Concession only has been sanctioned by Government, but not the leave on private affairs.
Consequently, the fraction of two months and twenty one days is still wanting to enable him to draw as pension fifty-per-cent of his last salary. —— Therefore I respectfully venture to submit again for the reconsideration of Government that the —— Comptroller's opinion that leave on private affairs Cannot be granted in continuation of privilege leave, is not correct for the following reasons: —

(1) Article 226 of the Mysore Service Regulations is worded as follows:- "An officer in "superior service who is subject to the rules
"of this chapter is eligible, after he attains
"the age of fifty five years, for privilege
"leave, for any leave on private affairs (Article 217

(article 219), to which he may be otherwise
"entitled, and also for leave without allowances
"under article 221, provided that the total leave "granted, whether on private affairs or without
"allowances, does not exceed six months in all,
"and for no other kind of leave". The Comptroller says in his docket no: $\frac{1768}{A/c\ 391}$, dated 21st September 1903, that Privilege leave or leave on private affairs that remains to his credit, can be granted under article 226. But it will be seen that Copulative Conjunction "and" is understood after the words "Privilege leave" in line 3 of article 226, and not disjunctive Conjunction "or". Further, the words-"total leave" in line 6, and the words-"Six months in all" in line 8, go to indicate that the privilege leave plus leave on private affairs granted, should not exceed six months.

Q) Article 165 A simply lays down the conditions on which Furlough, leave on private affairs, &c may be granted in combination with privilege leave. It is not mentioned in it that it does not extend to the officers who have attained the age of 55 years, as stated by the Comptroller. Condition (ii) in article 165 A lays down that when privilege leave is is combined with leave on private affair the combined leave shall not exceed six months. This is consistent with article 22 as interpreted by me. Further, the note und article XXV on page 70 of the Service Regulatio indicates that article 165 A is applicable to retiring officers.

(3) Article 219 lays down "Leave on private "affairs for six months may be granted t
"an officer who has not had Furlough
"after six years' service, and repeated - "after intervals of six years". He never too any Furlough, or Leave on private affairs.
Accordingly both Privilege leave and Leave on private affairs were at his credit when he was ordered to be retired; and therefor he is entitled to the leave for six months in all as per article 226 + Condition (ii) o article 165 A.

(4) Note 1 of article 219 lays down - "Leave on private affairs does not accumulate, and cannot be taken in instalments". Therefor the words "Total leave" in article 226, refere to in clause (1) above, cannot mean the total of the instalments of the leave on privat affairs.

2. Under such circumstances, I am of opinion that the two months and twenty one days may be granted

granted as leave on private affairs in Continuation of the Privilege leave granted to him. But if Government finally decide that such leave cannot be granted, I beg to solicit that the said fraction of two months and twenty one days may also be sanctioned to be added to his service as a 3rd grade Extra Assistant Commissioner under the authority of the Government of India Resolution No: 2087, dated 10th August 1878, which does not limit the Concession to one year, but says "that an addition to service for pension not exceeding the period of employment on famine relief duty, may, hereafter, on the retirement, be reconsidered for any specially deserving officer who did not receive any extra allowance when so employed". I have explained in my memorandum, dated 3rd december 1903, that the total period of Mr. Venkatarunga Iyengar's service during the famine was two years.

3. His application in the prescribed form, for a pension equal to 50% of his salary as a 3rd grade Extra Assistant Commissioner, Viz Rs 175/- including the fraction of Rs. 1-13-8 for the aforesaid period of two months and twenty one days, is herewith submitted for favour of sanction and transmission to the Comptroller.

The accompanying Extracts from the Mysore Administration Reports for the years 1876-77, 1877-78 and 1878-79 show that Famine Relief operations commenced in all the Talúks of the Nandidroog Division in October 1876 and closed in November 1878. It is thus evident that Mr. S. Venkata Rangaiyengar as an Amildar was employed on Famine Relief duty during the above period, i.e. for over two years. The Famine Commissioner's Farewell Minute dated 29th April 1878, as well as other official documents, extracts of which have been submitted already with the Excise Commissioner's letter to Government, show that Mr. S. Venkata Rangaiyengar rendered valuable services on such duty.
